Independence Day

In a few days people all across the United States of America will celebrate Independence Day, or July 4th. They will celebrate with fireworks, picnics, recreations activities and times of family gatherings. History tells us that this is an annual holiday to commemorate the adoption of the Declaration of Independence by the Continental Congress on July 4, 1776. Although the signing of the Declaration of Independence was not completed until August of that year, we still hold July 4th as the day of celebrating our independence from the control of the British Empire. This holiday was first observed in Philadelphia on July 8, 1776, at which time our founding fathers read aloud the Declaration of Independence. When they finished reading about the freedoms our new nation now enjoyed church bells rang out, bands played and an air of celebration overtook the people who were gathered together. As we prepare to celebrate our nation's independence, we need to take the time to remember all the men and women who have given their lives so that we can enjoy the freedoms we have today. We also must understand that the price of freedom often comes at a high cost. For this nation to enjoy the freedom we have today, many men and women of all ages and nationalities shed their blood for people they never knew. They died for you and for me, so we could be free from the bonds of another nation. But Independence Day should be looked at differently by Christian men, women and children. On this day we should be celebrating the time we were set free from the bonds of sin and the world. It is true that many men and women died for the freedom that this great nation enjoys, but more importantly it is true that on a hill called Calvary the perfect Son of God died for our sins so that we might know true freedom from a worldly empire and reconciliation with Almighty God. True freedom only comes through belief in Jesus Christ. Jesus once answered those who were questioning Him about true freedom with these words that transcend eternity. "Jesus answered them, 'Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is the slave of sin. The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son does remain forever. So if the Son makes you free, you will be free indeed" (John 8:34-36). Our forefathers fought to secure the freedom we know as a nation. Jesus Christ died for our sins and was resurrected from the grave to pave the way for us to be set free from the bonds of sin and death. Which freedom are you celebrating July 4th? Are you celebrating the national day of Independence or are you celebrating the day when you were set free by the blood of Christ? My prayer is that you are celebrating both freedoms.

Happy Independence Day,

Pastor Charles
